

Introductory Course in Medical Homœopathy

Part 1 Programme

1.15	registration
1.30	Welcome & Introduction
1.45	Scope of Homeopathy (classroom) SECTION 1.1 - 'Tuning in' (open learning supplement)
2.00	Pause for a new idea: The Principle of Similars
2.15	Exploring Symptoms: What are modalities ? <sup>1</sup>
2.20	Case Examples (classroom) - 'Replay of video consultation' (open learning supplement)
2.30	Tea / Coffee Break &amp; Questions
2.45	The origins of Homœopathy Outlined (classroom) SECTION 1.2 - Optional Reading on History of Homeopathic Medicine (open learning supplement)
3.00	Homœopathic pharmacy outline - expanded in open-learning supplement
3.30	Tea / Coffee Break &amp; Questions
3.45	Potentiation, microdose phenomena, hormesis, Arndt-Schultz law, science of water outlined - expanded in open learning supplement
4.00	A changing orthodoxy? The Scientific evidence - expanded in open learning supplement
4.30	Tea / Coffee Break &amp; Questions
4.45	SECTION 1.3 -Applying homoeopathic principles in treatment of allergy: Isopathy
5.00	SECTION 1.4 Common prescribing situations and potency choice
5.10	Materia medica : Useful medicines for painful conditions - see open learning supplement
5.30	Final Questions and Close
Home study: SAQs, Course reader & suggested reading lists, MCQs (optional)	